Risk & Liability Declaration

The main booker of the booking declares on his/her own behalf and on behalf of the other participants on the same booking, hereinafter referred to as: the participants that the participants have been informed of the following before entering into the booking, and that by making the booking the participants declare that they fully understand and accept it.

This concerns the following:

- that participants are advised by the organiser ('Trails of Menorca') to be in a good state of health and fitness prior to participation;
- that there are inherent risks/dangers for the participants associated with the activity/activities in which the participants will participate, including - but not limited to - the risk of property being damaged/lost, the risk of emergency services not being able to reach the participants in time, the risk of (serious) physical injury, and the risk of death;
- that the participants themselves are responsible for their health and safety and that participation is therefore at all times expressly at the participants' own risk;
- that the organiser and all (supporting) persons connected with it and engaged by it (instructors, guides etc.) is/are at no time liable and responsible with respect to the participants or third parties (family/next of kin/heirs/carers) for any consequences (tangible/intangible loss) suffered by the participants or third parties in connection with the participants' participation in the activity/activities;
- that the participants have hereby expressly been informed by the organiser of the aforementioned risks/dangers.
